College Level Examination Program

Regulation Statement

The College Board offers a College-Level Examination Program (CLEP®) that includes tests for various subject areas. These tests recognize a student's comprehensive subject knowledge acquired through independent or prior study. EKU accepts credit for these examinations according to guidelines. No credit is given for exams without equivalent courses at EKU. In order to receive credit, a student must complete the Credit-by-Examination form.

Entities Affected by the Regulation
